Subject: Ruth Hadlow

Mr. Felton,

I just wanted to thank you for the nice remembrance of my aunt, Ruth Hadlow, which is posted on the library's web site. Also, I enjoyed the article by Grant Segall and the photos of her. A friend alerted my family to this.

Ruth was everyone's favorite aunt. Her nieces and nephews respected and admired her, and she will be greatly missed by us all.

When I was nine years-old, Ruth suggested to my father that he buy a Nancy Drew book for me. He did, I got hooked on the series, and started going to the public library to find more of Nancy's adventures. Thus began my love of libraries, so much so, that I decided to make library work my career - I work at the Missoula Public Library in Missoula, MT. And all it took was a librarian, who happened to be a special aunt, suggesting a book. How simple and so much like Ruth to do that.

Thanks again for the tribute to Ruth.

Good wishes,

Christine Hadlow
