Dear Mr. Felton,

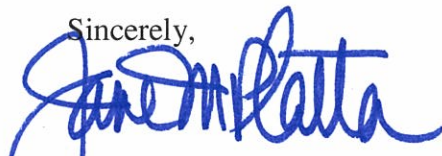

The Cuyahoga County Board of Elections would like to express our deep appreciation to your staff and management for conducting "Super Saturday" on February 4, 2012 and for making the event a big success.

Thank you for offering voters the convenience of dropping into their local library to complete and submit their vote-by-mail applications and register to vote in the March 6, 2012 Presidential Primary Election.

We also wish to acknowledge the Cleveland Public Library for its ongoing contribution to voter education and service to voters. Our efforts to educate and engage voters in the democratic process depend on our community partners. Your library is one our most important and active partners!

We can all be proud of your commitment to making our libraries a valuable resource for information, entertainment, voter education information and activities including Super Saturday.

Sincerely,

Jane Platten

So take whatever He gives and give whatever He takes with a big smile. Accept the gifts of God and be deeply grateful. If He has given you great wealth, make use of it, try to share it with others, with those who don't have anything. Always share with others.

Dear Ms. Hajzak:

Please accept our sincere gratitude for your recent gift of hand-knit hats and scarves. Your thoughtful donations will be distributed to the many who come to the West 32nd Street each day in search of basic necessities with as much love and care as which they have been given.

Just as the approaching season of Spring inspires us with hope and the promise of new beginnings, we move into the new year of 2012 and prepare for growth and changes in our services and programs to better meet the needs of our guests. Your love and compassion enables our ministry to provide this hope and promise to them.

As we celebrate our 34 years of service, we extend our heartfelt appreciation and thank God for the continued blessing of your support.

Very sincerely,

Anita Cook

The hats, scarves, bibs and quilts are beautiful! So much love went in to making them I am sure. The women and children of the Shelter are enjoying all the items.

Grounded in faith, hope, love and respect for those we serve, we assist all who come in need of food, clothing, shelter and advocacy.

Dear Mr Anthony Coyne, Mr. Felton ^{2/13/12}
Thomas, and Ms. Kelly Brown,

Thank you so much for your wonderful introduction to both Cleveland's historic library and Group Plan Commission. The archives you showed us online revealed a depth and complexity to Cleveland's history that we don't often learn about in school, and especially for those of us who have studied U.S. History, the Group Plan Commission's place in the Progressive and City Beautiful Movements really put into perspective the unique position Cleveland has in the long and illustrious history of great American cities. Seeing the construction on the Mall outside the window was incredible, but better still was getting the opportunity to examine blueprints and sketches of what the Mall will look like when it is finally finished. We were all especially impressed by the detail and direction given to creating green spaces, integrated athletic areas, and quiet rooms that people will not only enjoy visiting but actively seek out. Seeing everything that Cleveland has to offer, not just today but in ten or twenty years from now, has opened up our eyes to the possibilities of coming back to the city after we graduate and prospering in an up-to-date and inviting environment.

Again, we cannot thank you enough for your time and effort in having prepared such a wonderful presentation. We particularly enjoyed the idea for the Convention Center / Rec. in Rell Hall of Fame prom mash-up - and though that won't be available to us, we are excited that it will be available to those who come after, and we're even more excited that we were able to learn about it from you.

Sincerely,
