I wish to have books sent regularly. Books will be replaced as they are returned to the Library. The Library will send books based on your reading interests and from your requests. Requests and reading interests can be updated by contacting the Library.

I wish to receive only books that I request. You will need to contact the library and make requests. You may use our bimonthly catalog of new books or online catalog to enter requests. No books will be sent unless there are requests on file.

I wish only to download my reading materials. No reading materials will be mailed to you unless you request them. Instead, you will download all of your reading materials using BARD rather than having items mailed to you.
